Dr Bronwyn King (WCLP 2012)

Radiation Oncologist, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre

Dr. Bronwyn King is a Radiation Oncologist at The Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre and Epworth Healthcare.

In 2010 she founded Tobacco Free Portfolios after discovering her unwitting investment in the tobacco industry, via her superannuation fund. Her collaborative work with finance industry executives has since contributed to more than 30 Australian superannuation funds divesting tobacco stocks worth ~$1.5 billion AUD and inspired the Global Task Force for Tobacco Free Portfolios, an initiative of the Union for International Cancer Control and the World Health Organisation.

Bronwyn is the Tobacco Control Ambassador for Cancer Council Australia. She represented Australia in swimming and was team doctor for the Australian Swimming Team. She is an Australia Day Ambassador, actively involved in the Big Brother Big Sister mentoring program and a fellow of Leadership Victoria's Williamson Community Leadership Program.

In 2014 she was named as one of the Australian Financial Review/Westpac 100 Women of Influence.
