Victorian Rural Women's Network Leadership and Mentoring Program

Leadership Victoria is delighted to be working in partnership with the Victorian Rural Women's Network to offer two funded places for the Williamson Leadership Program 2021.

Candidates applying for funded places on the Williamson Leadership Program through the Victorian Rural Women's Leadership and Mentoring Program must adhere to the following terms and conditions:

- be a Victorian Rural Women's Network subscriber. You can subscribe here;
- be a regional or rural woman who permanently resides in Victoria; and
- be involved in the Victorian agriculture sector and/or the Victorian agriculture supply chain.
- be able to travel to and attend all activities and opportunities related to the funded place on the Williamson Community Leadership Program.

Williamson fees are structured so that there is an organisational and an individual component. The standard organisational fee will be fully funded by the Victorian Rural Women's Leadership and Mentoring Program (including Intensive and mentoring program components). The individual fee (of $2,057) must be paid by the selected candidate

Selected candidates will be expected to participate in a range of communications activities connected to the Victorian Rural Women's Network and Leadership Victoria including, but not limited to:

- newsletter and magazine articles
- social media posts
- website stories
- potential media opportunities
- other opportunities related to the Victorian Rural Women's Network.

Additionally, they are required to contribute to scholarship progress reporting.

A capped out-of-pocket expenses allowance is available on a case-by-case basis for travel, accommodation, child-minding and other potential costs that might prevent potential candidates from participating in this program. Details will be supplied on securing a funded place.

Scholarships are not transferable.
